Linda Paquette Named An IA Int'l Rep, Assigned To H'w'd

Linda Paquette has been named the International Alliance of Theatrical Stage Employees' new international rep assigned to the IA's west coast office.

Paquette, whose appointment was made by IA president Al DiTolla, was a steward for the IA's west coast special department from 1974-76. She left that post to study law and is now an attorney.

Paquette, a past president of the California Young Democrats and a current member of the Coalition of Labor Union Women, will be assigned to all areas of the IA's west coast operations, with particular emphasis on grievances and arbitrations filed by the IA Hollywood locals against signatory producers.

Paquette's appointment brings to three the the number of IA international reps currently assigned to the union's Hollywood office.
